Fact of the Day #2: Lori Saldana Wants To Raise Your Taxes

-- Candidate in Assembly District 76 refuses to put commitment to taxpayers in writing --

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Lori Saldana, vying to represent voters in California's 76th Assembly District, has declined numerous offers to sign the Taxpayer Protection Pledge. Already the primary season has shown that taxpayers throughout the nation are wary of those who dig into their pockets. They do not appreciate having their wallets raided.

Lori Saldana has refused to sign the Taxpayer Protection Pledge. Just which taxes does she plan to raise?

☞ Does she want to raise your income taxes?

☞ Does she want to raise your tax on groceries?

☞ Does she want to raise the cost of your families clothing and school supplies?

☞ Does she want to raise your tax on gasoline?

California is just recovering from a huge fiscal mess caused by fiscal irresponsibility. The last thing the state now needs are higher taxes. Yet, with Lori Saldana, taxpayers may be in for more.

Saldana's opponent, Tricia Hunter, has signed the Taxpayer Protection Pledge, and has thus put her commitment to taxpayers in writing. She wants her constituents to know that they can hold her accountable to her commitment not to raise taxes.

Americans for Tax Reform is a non-partisan coalition of taxpayers and taxpayer groups who oppose all tax increases. For more information or to arrange an interview please contact Chris Butler at (202) 785-0266 or by email at cbutler@atr.org.
