31 OCTOBER 2007

Senate District 33 Election Fact of the Day #1

Mark Herring Wants to Raise Your Taxes

In the race for the state senate seat in district 33, incumbent Mark Herring (D) has been asked to sign the Taxpayer Protection Pledge, a written commitment to voters to “oppose and vote against any and all tax increases.” The Taxpayer Protection Pledge is the single most important tool for an elected official to demonstrate his or her commitment to lower taxes and limited government.

Challenger Patricia Phillips (R) has taken the pledge.

Senator Herring has refused to make such a commitment to the taxpayers of the Commonwealth.

Higher taxes would hurt economic growth and only feed wasteful spending in the Commonwealth.

Virginia taxpayers cannot afford higher taxes.

Why won't Mark Herring rule out tax increases?

Americans for Tax Reform (ATR) is a non-partisan coalition of taxpayers and taxpayer groups who oppose all federal, state and local tax increases. For more information or to arrange an interview, please contact John Kartch at (202) 785-0266 or at jkartch@atr.org.
