ATR Welcomes New Operations Manager, Promotes Another to Development Manager

Beginning Monday, September 16, Kate Morse will join Americans for Tax Reform as Operations Manager, while Athena Reizakis will move from Operations to Development Manager. ATR is thrilled to add Kate to our staff, and to offer new challenges to Athena.

Previously, Kate held an internship focusing on publications marketing at the American Enterprise Institute in Washington, D.C. While at AEI, Kate researched, wrote, and published articles for The American Enterprise magazine. Kate also has experience with Bankrate.com, where she conducted research about financing and credit cards for college students. She published three articles for Bankrate.com. Prior to that job, Kate held an internship with the Money Section of USA Today.

Kate received a Bachelor of Arts degree in English in May from Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She was a member of Sigma Tau Delta National English Honors Society and attained recognition by making the Dean's List for six semesters.

Athena has proven herself for almost two years at ATR. A native of Massachusetts, she took over Operations at ATR after leaving the University of Miami. Athena's diligence and attention to detail has given ATR's management the confidence to entrust her with primary oversight of direct mail operations. Thank you, Athena, for your hard work, and we look forward to more of the same.

Americans for Tax Reform is a non-partisan coalition of taxpayers and taxpayer groups who oppose all federal and state tax increases. For more information or to arrange an interview please contact Jonathan Collegio at (202) 785-0266 or by email at jcollegio@atr.org.
