KEY:

- "Investment" – Even more government spending to employ union workers
- "Children and grandchildren" – The people picking up the tab
- "Health Care Reform" – Unconstitutional effort to raise taxes, raise spending, and limit health care choices
- "Together, we can" -- 1. Play golf
2. Rule the galaxy as father and son
- "Job Creation" – Paying people to dig holes and paying others to fill them in again
- "Compromise" – Do what I want
- "I" or "Me" – Center of the known universe
- "Let me be clear" – Stand by for meaningless generalizations
- "Prosperity" -- The status we'll achieve when all "the rich" are gone, somehow
- "Spending Freeze" – Two Step Diet Plan: 1. Gorge at an all-you-can-eat buffet
2. Repeat for the next three years
- "Crisis" -- Excuse to hike taxes and grow the government per Rahm Emanuel's theory:
"You never want a serious crisis to go to waste"
- "There are those who..." – [INSERT STRAW MAN HERE]
- "Middle Class" – Those who are the target of seven pledge-breaking tax hikes in Obamacare
- "Bipartisan" – Democrat efforts to get Republican fingerprints on bad pieces of legislation
- "As I've said before" – Prepare for a poll-tested line from stump speeches
- "Washington special interests" – 1. Those whose interests conflict with my ideology
2. The major donors to my campaign
- "Tax cuts to 95%" – Don't ask about the two dozen new or higher taxes in Obamacare
- "Working families" – 1. The ever shrinking populace employed in the private sector
2. Government employees
- "Deficit" – The difference between giant spending and giant tax increases
- "Sacrifice" – Tax hikes
- "Recovery" – Getting the unemployment rate below 9.5%
- "Green" – What Americans have less of
- "Regulations" – Growth of government that can only be achieved through the executive branch
- "Exports" – That trade which is acceptable to union bosses
