ANNCR: When we need to save money, we spend less.

Why should the Michigan Legislature be any different?

Music Bed Up and Under

Lawmakers should cut $300-million off their bloated budget, instead of raising taxes.

Some House members have pledged not to raise taxes but are wavering. They need to tighten their belts, just like we do.

More taxes are a short-term fix, not a long-term solution.

Tell your representative to cut spending and not raise taxes. After all – it's our money, not theirs.
