

Tonight at 8:00 PM Eastern Time, President Obama will address a joint session of Congress. Below is a handy Bingo card you may use to check off terms and phrases likely to be used. As a bonus, print out the different versions of the card and watch the speech with your friends or family:

O	B	A	M	A
"Public option"	"Change"	"Bend the cost curve"	Invocation of FDR, Truman, Nixon, or Ted Kennedy	"Status quo"
"Deficit-neutral"	"Bipartisan"	"Investment"	"Let me be clear"	"The cost of doing nothing"
"Crisis"	"Children and grandchildren"	GOVERNMENT SUBSIDIZED "FREE"SPACE	"Waste, fraud, and abuse"	"Naysayers" or "Fear-mongers"
"Quality health insurance"	"Medical malpractice reform"	"Keep insurance companies honest"	"Well-financed forces"	"Create choice and competition"
"Hope"	"46 million uninsured"	"Washington special interests"	"Doctors and Nurses"	"As I've said before"

KEY:

"Public option" – A government-run health plan

"Crisis" -- Excuse to hike taxes and grow the government per Rahm Emmanuel's theory: "Never waste a crisis"

"Hope" – The medicine Obama will prescribe while you're on a government waiting list

"Change" – Take-home pay of future generations due to massive spending increases and government expansion

"Bipartisan" – Tricking one gullible Republican into voting for a government-controlled health plan

"Children and grandchildren" – The people picking up the tab

"Investment" – The government spending your tax dollars

"As I've said before" – Prepare for a poll-tested line from stump speeches

"Deficit-neutral" – Raising taxes at least as much as you raise spending

"Quality health insurance" – A benefits package designed by unelected federal bureaucrats

"46 million uninsured" – Inflated number which includes illegal immigrants, those eligible for but not enrolled in existing government programs, and those who turn down insurance they can afford

"Waste, fraud, and abuse" – Magic asterisk when a politician needs a pay-for

"Well-financed forces" – K Street health industry lobbyists in bed with Obamacare

"Washington special interests" – K Street lobbyists President Obama likes to pretend are opposed to Obamacare but actually support it

"Status quo" – Government already controls half of the U.S. healthcare sector; Obamacare wants to take over the other half

"The cost of doing nothing" – Trillions less than Obama's plan

"Let me be clear" – Prepare yourself for meaningless truism

"Naysayers" or "fear-mongers" – Any person legitimately concerned about the rapid encroachment of government in their life

"Create choice and competition" – Driving out private sector health insurance by rigging any competition in the government's favor

"Keep insurance companies honest" – see "create choice and competition" above

"Bend the cost curve" – The government rationing your healthcare

"Medical malpractice reform" – Something Obama, Reid, and Pelosi will never actually do since they are in the pocket of trial lawyers

"Doctors and Nurses" – Healthcare professionals who will be drafted into government employment when Obamacare eventually turns into a single-payer system