8 Facts About the GOP Tax Cuts That Dems Don’t Want to Talk About

1. Thanks to Tax Reform, 90 Percent of Wage Earners Are Seeing Increased Take-home Pay:
   - A family of four with annual income of $73,000 (median family income) will see a tax cut of more than $2,058, a 58 percent reduction in federal taxes.
   - A single parent with one child with annual income of $41,000 will see a tax cut of $1,304, a 73 percent reduction in federal taxes.
   - Married small business owners with annual income of $100,000 will see a tax cut of $2,603, a 24 percent reduction in federal taxes.

2. Americans at Every Income Level Are Seeing Significant Tax Reduction Because of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act:
   - 90 percent of taxpayers with annual income of between $40,000 and $64,000 will see an average federal tax cut of $810 in 2018.
   - 91 percent of taxpayers with annual income between $64,000 and $108,000 will see an average federal tax cut of $1,400 in 2018.
   - 87 percent of taxpayers with annual income between $108,000 and $232,000 will see an average federal tax cut of $2,710 in 2018.

3. Thanks to Tax Reform, Families and Individuals Across the Country Will See A Fairer, Simpler Tax Code Starting 2018:
   - The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act doubled the standard deduction for an individual from $6,000 to $12,000 and for a family from $12,000 to $24,000. 105,055,150 families and individuals took the standard deduction in 2015.
     - Because of tax reform, 93 percent of filers will now take the standard deduction, resulting in significant simplification of the tax code.
   - The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act raised the threshold of the Alternative Minimum Tax so fewer taxpayers are forced to comply with the provision. 4,464,430 families and individuals paid the Alternative Minimum Tax in 2015.
   - The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act doubled the child tax credit from $1,000 to $2,000 per child. 22,324,780 families took the Child Tax Credit in 2015.
4. Thanks to Tax Reform, American Families Will See Relief from the Obamacare Individual Mandate Tax Penalty.

- Obamacare imposed a tax penalty of $695 for an individual and $2,085 for a family of four for failing to buy “qualifying” health insurance as defined by the federal government. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act repeals this unfair tax.

- The Obamacare individual mandate tax penalty is one of the most regressive taxes in the code as it disproportionately impacts low and middle-income families:
  - 6,665,480 individuals and families paid a total of $3,079,255,000 in individual mandate tax penalties in 2015.
  - 37.35 percent of taxpayers (2,489,490 households) that paid the individual mandate made less than $25,000 in annual income.
  - 78.98 percent of taxpayers (5,264,380 households) that paid the individual mandate made less than $50,000 in annual income.
